

Fresh colours for garden and patio

The trend of expanding living space to the outdoors is still current. To make the most of your own outdoor oasis, the comfortable garden furniture from LECHUZA will be available starting mid-January 2018 in three special modern colors.

With an attractive wicker look in warm mocha, fresh apple green or bright scarlet red, the chairs and tables will be eye-catchers on your patio or in your garden. Furniture from LECHUZA is not only visually impressive – it's also very comfortable. The ergonomic form and the slightly elastic shell of the chairs support a natural sitting position. The air-permeable seat and back guarantee relaxing hours on the patio or in the garden, even on hot days. When not being used, the chairs can be conveniently stacked away. The elegant dining table comes in two sizes with a tabletop made of safety glass or high-pressure laminate (HPL).

All LECHUZA furniture is exceptionally robust and weather-resistant to UV radiation and frost and it is also easy to clean. The surface looks like the natural texture of woven wicker, adding a cozy touch to the home. In its new colors, the furniture is sure to put you in a good mood!

Tables and chairs are now available in stores in the classic colors white and granite, and beginning in mid-January 2018 in the special colors apple green, mocha and scarlet red.
